Mrs. Mary Fritz came out from Illinois last night and went out to visit ber sister, Mrs. F. M. Seger.

John Jones came back to town on Wednesday after a six-weeks stay near Nenzel. John is still single.

Mrs. V. Nicholson and her little son, and Mrs. Frank Brayton, went down to Ainsworth, yesterday, for a few days' visit.

W. S. Garcelon, McCormick machine agent, well known here, had his hand cut off by the train at Ainsworth today.

A man named Orr was brought to town today from the Reservation.suffering from a snake bite. Dr. Compton dressed the wound.

Dean S. Efner, editor of the Dawes County Journal, visited with home folks from Saturday until Monday evening this week. Mr. Efner is a man of rising ability and we predict for him a brilliant future in his chosen profession.

Willie McDonald, who had his arm broken a short time ago, fell and broke the same arm again Thursday evening last. He drove down from Crookston to have Dr. Compton set it. It is a serious thing to have an arm broken the second time before it has thoroughly knitted together, but we hope that Willie's arm may not grow crooked from this misfortune.

The suicide clause in the Modern Woodman benefit certificate has again been upheld by the courts Mrs. Jessie Kerr, of Manila, Ia., brought suit against the Woodmen to recover $3,000 insurance held by her husband, James R. Kerr, who committed suicide by shooting. The jury in the United States court at Council Bluffs, Iowa, returned a verdict sustaining the contention of the society, which was that Kerr's certificate was voided by his suicide.

There was a political meeting at Cody, Tuesday evening, conducted by Colonel W.F. Hayward, candidate for senator of the 14th senatorial district Prof. D. McCall, a farmer of Valley county, spoke on the issues of the campaign presenting in a clear, intelligible manner how a farmer sees things and defining how and why a farmer should vote. Hon. W. B. Price, deputy insurance commissioner, delivered the closing speech in which he told of existing conditions and how they were in republican rule.

Copper mining is probably the most profitable enterprise of the day, and it is more stable than any other class of mining. Given a property where ore exists in sufficient abundance it can be made to pay well. The uncertainties of gold mining are not present in the mining of copper. The outlook at present for profitable copper mining was never as bright as it is to-day.
